

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method for optical shape recording and/or evaluation of optically smooth, glossy or optically rough surfaces wherein a photometric stereo method and a deflectometric method are combined using a scattering body so that the positions on the scattering body surface are two-dimensionally encoded.